Seen, Heard and Done Among Those Who Go, Come and Tarry—Women and Society, Here and Elsewhere.

GUESTS OF THE CITY OF ST. LOUIS.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Gittings, formerly Miss McGuire, returned Friday night from their wedding journey after a most enjoyable month spent in St. Louis and in visiting the former home of Mr. Gittings in Chilhowee, Mo.

When notified that they would be detained for five days in quarantine before they would be permitted to visit in the city of St. Louis, Mr. Gittings and his bride were greatly disappointed and anticipated a depressing stay in uncomfortable environments. To their relief they were given nice entertainment at the nurses headquarters, a building quite apart from the hospital and are very appreciative of the hospitality shown them, and particularly of the courtesy of Dr. and Mrs. Dwyer who treated them rather as personal guests than as refugees, and made their five days detention a very pleasant feature of what proved a delightful stay in the Missouri metropolis, despite the annoying publicity resulting therefrom.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gray were also "Among those present" as guests of the city of St. Louis, later going to visit Mr. Gray's father in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Gittings are at home 822 East Gadsden.

SOCIAL BLUFF SPRINGS.

The innumerable friends of Capt. E. Meade Wilson will be pleased to learn that he has recovered from his accident and has returned to the L. & N. Camp, leaving Mrs. Wilson who has gained nine pounds and their two little sons at Bluff Springs.

Miss Nell Richards of Pensacola, who is teaching here has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bond since Friday evening.

Some of the folks here are enjoying some fine watermelons. Say—wish you'd send them up here to put a telephone in my house. When we have one of our jolly good times would tell you about 'em but—the mails are so slow.

AN ATHENIAN WEDDING.

Pensacola friends of Miss Dorothy McPherson, of Athens, Ga., will be interested in the announcement of her coming marriage to Mr. P. H. Farnsworth a clever young journalist of New York.

She is the orphan sister of Prof. John H. T. McPherson of the University of Georgia.

The wedding will take place Tuesday evening, Nov. 7, at 8 o'clock in the Athens Episcopal church.

THE UNMENTIONABLE.

When rich with peel and plum, a cake is fare I'm not afraid to try, Because it gives me strength. No, reader, no. I'll not say why. If I should give a plainer hint You'd faint to see it in cold print.

Though oft I suffer agonies, Yet, when I mention where, I trow, Is rarer than a dragon is. For I'm well-mannered you must know.

The world would blush for weeks to come To hear me name my little t—.

If I'm heard intimating it Holds that which with it disagrees Though subtly indicating it By elegant periphrases, How general, how sad to view Is conscious modesty's shocked hue!

Dire were the inpropriety Of naming what unnamed must rest, Lest horrified society Should learn what lies below my chest.

Enough for me to be aware, That after all you know it's there.

SUCCESS OF A DINNER.

That the success of a dinner party does not depend on the excellence of the chef, but on the proper assortment of the company, was precisely the opinion of a very witty old lady, who wisely said, "My dear, it isn't the menu that makes good dinner; it's the men you sit next to.—Tampa Times.

Philip had gone out to bring in the new kittens to show them to a visitor. His mother, hearing a shrill mewling, called out: "Don't hurt the kittens, Philip." From the hall came the reassuring answer: "O, no. I'm carrying them very carefully by the stems.—Children's Visitor.

A member of a school board once asked a class of children if any of them could tell what an epidemic was. No answer. "Well, let me prompt you. An epidemic is anything that spreads. Now what is an epidemic?" "Jam, sir," replied a boy promptly.—East and West.

BIG CROWDS EXPECTED AT TAMPA STATE FAIR

Tampa, Oct. 16.—From the reports of the passenger and industrial agents of the Coast Line, Seaboard and other railways interested in the coming state fair at Tampa, the attendance of home-seekers from other states will surpass that of any fair hitherto held in the south. Throughout the entire summer and autumn and energetic advertising campaign has been waged in all sections, particularly the northwest, and this will be continued until the Fair gates open. So great has been the demand for exhibit space at the Fair that the erection of extra buildings has been necessitated, including an other for live stock. About 100 of the finest race horses of Tennessee, the Carolinas, Georgia and Florida will be seen in the great race meet, to last nine days.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS.

Because It's for One Thing Only and Pensacola is Learning This. Nothing can be good for anything. Doing one thing well brings success.

Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only. They're for sick kidneys.

They cure backache, every kidney ill.

Here is Pensacola evidence to prove it:

Mrs. Martha A. Stevens, residing at 309 East Gadsden street, says: "I have been a friend of Doan's Kidney Pills for a long time, and I always recommend them to everyone I hear complaining of backache or kidney ill of any kind. This remedy has been used in my family off and on for years and the pills have never been found wanting to anyone requiring a kidney medicine. No one need hesitate about going to Sidney Kahn's drug store, No. 9 South Palafox street for they will not be disappointed in the results obtained."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SAGE LEAVES

Brent, Fla., Oct. 16.—The past week opened with a duplicate equinoctial storm. The east wind of Sunday night generated a water-fall which poured down almost unceasingly throughout Monday, with increasing velocity of the wind—a most fitful condition for the "banner day" of the yellow fever visitation.

There may have been unbidden shipments of infected mosquitoes lurking in the freight cars standing at the Goulding yards which caused the spread of fever in that vicinity.

Whenever we catch a cold, feel hot or become tired we imagine that Miss Stegomyia has been guilty of kissing us on the sly. With the developments of suspicious symptoms we swallow a double cathartic, scald two feet in hot mustard water, then, (if we are not sick enough to fall into bed,) dress up in winter wraps and exercise after internal drenchings of orange-leaf tea, until a gentle perspiration ensues, which must be kept regular until the scare is over and symptoms abate.

Mr. Berry has only seen three mosquitoes at his place the past season, all of which he pleads guilty of having murdered in the first degree! Miss Herrington learned that she was credited by somebody with having a case of yellowish fever. She wants it distinctly understood that she claims no immunity from the effects of infected mosquitoes.

The travelers body-guard at the dead line is now comfortably sheltered in an abandoned dairy wagon. The exposure to which the pioneer guards were subjected might generate a more fatal new mony than an average attack of the mosquito fever.

The "chalk-line" is becoming a market center of importance. Where shall a market-house be located for a center of supplies?

The wonderful industry in the manufacture of cash registers at Dayton, O., has probably no equal, in many respects, throughout the civilized world. The high wages paid for reduced hours work—together with the advantages, attractions and comforts extended to all employees make a job at the "N. C. R." a most enviable position.

The organized labor "trusts" appear to be overleaping all reasonable bounds, and threaten to disorganize this great "welfare league"—making demands that the management can never accept.

The attendance of every member was requested to meeting to discuss the demands of the Typographical Union. About 300 hands played truant, and were discharged for life the following day.

The general manager said: "We are going to eliminate those who are not with us in heart and soul. The men who loaf and scoff and sneer."

"I don't believe the 8 hour day is necessary, which would impede the progress of this country in capturing the markets of the world more than all the commercial treaties and advantageous trade agreements could ever counterbalance."

"I predict that any attempt to boycott this company will begin your downfall in the United States. The Chicago strike will be no indication of the public indignation which will be aroused."

The secretary said: "We are not opposed to Unions, but to their abuses—every laborer must have his constitutional right to work when, where and how he pleases. We allow men to belong to a Union or not—but feel that no man in our employ should be forced into joining a labor organization if he does not want to do so."

President Patterson said: "This factory and all its welfare work may sink into oblivion, its buildings may stand here and rot, with its doors locked and the machines idle, before I will be low enough and mean enough, or such a traitor to you people, as to sign such a contract as that which is offered by the Typographical Union."

"I fought in civil war to preserve the Union, and I do not propose now to lie down when disunion threatens us. This institution is going forward if money, work and the law will let it, regardless of the opposition of any band of men who attempt to tell us how to run our business."

From a strange voice in the hall came a suggestion which Mr. Patterson said was worth fifty dollars, and he instructed the treasurer to write him a check for that amount.

A bulletin at the factory read: "Beginning Oct. 3, we will give $100 a day in prizes for five days, for the best suggestions received from employees, telling of wrongs in our organization, or where money might be saved & etc., giving every one an opportunity of showing his loyalty to us, by telling in his opinion is wrong wrong here."

JOHN H. PATTERSON, President.

Mr. Patterson has become overstrained under 14 to 15 hours of intense daily labor, and has left Ohio for a rest in "Greater New York."

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known traveling man who vic' its drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by all druggists.
